

SMALL GROUP MINISTRY WORKSHOP

Saturday, October 8, 2011

8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

THIS WORKSHOP IS OPEN TO THE ENTIRE UUA METRO DISTRICT

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Current SGM facilitators (especially those who have been doing this for years)
- Anyone thinking about becoming a facilitator
- Anyone who wants to learn how SGM helps us grow spiritually while deepening our connections to others

WHAT WILL WE COVER?

This SGM workshop goes beyond the nuts and bolts to explore the twin purposes of SGM-community and spiritual growth. What is spiritual growth and how do we encourage it? How do we help develop community? What are the foundations of good facilitation? The day will include presentations, discussions, a small group experience, and a chance to learn from other SGM facilitators.

WHO IS LEADING THE WORKSHOP?

Rev. M’Ellen Kennedy, a community minister with over 25 years of experience working with lay-led small groups. Rev. Kennedy is a cofounder of the UU Small Group Ministry Network.

Bagel breakfast at 8:30; workshop starts at 9:00; lunch provided
 $15/person includes Meals & Information Packet
