

UU SMALL GROUP MINISTRY NETWORK
GENERAL ASSEMBLY, PORTLAND, OREGON, BOOTH #214
JUNE 24-28, 2015

Visit the Booth, Contribute to Resources, Join the Booth Events
AND

Come join the Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry Network
GA 2015 BOOTH TEAM!

Congregational and Individual Members of the UU SGM Network are invited to be Booth Assistants and Volunteers. As Booth Team members, you will discuss SGM/covenant groups, answer questions, cite Small Group Ministry resources and initiatives, and share your experiences with Booth visitors during Exhibit Hall hours (see below).

GA Booth Assistants work in blocks of 2-4 hours, with modest reimbursement. Booth Assistant candidates are knowledgeable about SGM/covenant groups and the UU SGM Network, and are enthusiastic about sharing the Small Group Ministry model.

GA Booth Volunteers assist at the Booth in blocks of 1-2 hours. Booth Volunteer candidates have experience as SGM/covenant group members, dedication to the SGM model, and knowledge of the UU SGM Network.

Booth Assistants and Volunteers will work with the Booth Coordinator, a member of the UU SGM Network Board. There will be a one hour orientation via conference call before GA.

Apply for either position by e-mail to office@smallgroupministry.net by June 1, 2015, with the following information: Volunteers may also apply at the GA Booth.

Indicate position (one or both): Booth Assistant _____ Booth Volunteer _____

Name and contact information (phone, e-mail address, congregational/membership connection).

Your involvement with SGM/Covenant Groups

Your interaction with the UU SGM Network (working knowledge of the Network website and resources; your contributions, such as articles and session plans; and previous GA Booth or Small Group Ministry workshop experience).

For questions about the positions or application process, please contact Helen Zidowecki at the above e-mail address or 207-582-5308.
