

NEW FROM UU SMALL GROUP MINISTRY NETWORK
SPECIAL GA 2012 OFFER

SOCIAL JUSTICE WORK:
Preparation, Action, Reflection
THROUGH SMALL GROUP MINISTRY

Designed to enhance the focus of Justice General Assembly, this publication reviews the social justice process and presents covenant group session plans for use at each phase. Among the session topics are Radical Hospitality, Multiculturalism, Standing on the Side of Love, Immigration As A Moral Issue, Hotel Earth, and Ethical Eating.

Small Group Ministry embraces relationships, faith exploration, and meaning, and engages us deeply in connecting Social Justice work with our spiritual journey. We reflect on what we have done, integrate it with our values and our understanding of the world, and make that the basis of future action.

The publication includes

The Process of Social Justice work, with distinct phases of preparation, action, and reflection.

Background and use of Small Group Ministry, and

Using and creating Small Group Ministry session plans for Social Justice work.

There are 34 session plans from 12 congregations and other writers, organized around the phases of Social Justice work, for use by individuals, congregations and other groups.

Authors: Rev. Helen Zidowecki and Susan Hollister
