

What is Your Moral Code in Relation to Right and Wrong?

Kitsap Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Bremerton, WA, Rev. Liz Stevens, 2006-2007

Opening Reading:

In the quietness of this place, surrounded by the all-pervading presence of the Holy, my Heart whispers: keep fresh before me the moments of my High Resolve, that in good times or in tempests, I may not forget that to which my life is committed.

Keep fresh before me the moments of my high resolve.

Discussion Questions:

How did your parents teach you right from wrong?

When you got to be a teenager, did you insist on learning it the hard way?

What is it that helps you make decisions now? What strategies do you use?

Have you ever done anything that is against your moral code? Why? What happened?

Closing Reading:

Prayer for Conscience by Jane Ellen Mauldin

Shake me awake
when I cover my ears,
when I deny your call,
and try to justify my actions with
greed called practicality,
hunger called need,
desire called just desserts.

Flood my hearing with the music of love
that pounds through my veins.

May my craving cease
and my sensitivity heighten
that each moment each day
my ears and heart are open to you.
